

You are invited to our
Socially Distanced
Service of Remembrance

As an inclusive burial park, we have many different traditions practiced by members of our community. As a part of the Jewish High Holidays, Cantorial Soloist Sarah Avner of Congregation Beth Israel will be leading us in a service of remembrance filled with song, meditation, psalms, readings, and prayers with the intention of bringing healing as well as a chance to feel connected to those whom we have lost.

Where: Eloise Woods Natural Burial Park
115 Northside Lane, Cedar Creek

When: Sunday, September 20, 2020, at 10:30 am

What to Bring: Face covering, an umbrella for shade, drinking water, and a camping chair if seating is desired

RSVP at AustinNaturalFunerals.com/who-we-are/community-events
Attendance will be limited to ensure proper social distancing
Questions? Call us at (512) 196-5240

We are honored to provide a safe way to gather and remember. In accordance with health and safety ordinances, all guests will be required to wear face coverings and are asked to practice responsible social distancing measures.

If you are feeling less than well, we ask that you please view the service recording following the event from the safety and comfort of your home at EloiseWoods.com/Events.html