

Mildred Alice Herrin

July 14, 1917 - January 14, 2020

On Tuesday, January 14th and at the remarkable age of 102 and a half, Mildred Herrin passed away in Austin, Texas surrounded by family and caregivers. Ms. Herrin was born July 14, 1917, in Houston, Texas where she lived until recently moving near family in Austin.

Born to parents, Thomas I. Parr, Sr. and Florence Parr, and her older brother Thomas "Boots" Parr, Jr. Mildred Herrin has told us countless times of how she met her husband Harold Herrin, so we will not repeat it again here. Mildred and Harold married in 1934 and celebrated 57 years of marriage before Harold's death in 1991. Mildred and Harold were loving parents to Barbara Tocker, Bobbie Nassr, Harold "Buzzy" Herrin and Sandy Herrin (of beloved memory). Mildred Herrin was the family matriarch of 14 grandchildren and lived to know her many Great and Great/Great Grandchildren.

Our blessed Mildred has had more than a usual share of both fortune and hardship, but throughout her life, she had a way of connecting with people of all generations. After her 100th birthday, Mildred had resigned herself to a life of excellent care, shrimp dinners and an occasional margarita. We are forever grateful for the caregivers, friends and family that came through her life and making her days so special.

“ Growing up going to Grandma's was always a fun time, I loved MAX my buddy dog, and as a little boy going by the garage to pick figs and eat them was a treat! I remember growing up there and always seeing the living room that no one was allowed to enter! LOL. I will miss her so much - Sweet but never afraid to say the truth. I don't think I ever got on her bad side and her hugs and lipstick kisses were always something that brought my childhood peace. Loving woman and strong to last this long! I love you Grandma and you will always have a place in my heart. Unforgettable laugh and calming gestures to ensure us, her grandchildren and great grandchildren were living happily. God bless you Grandma I love you and now you can be with the loves of your life in the Kingdom in which you inherited.
