

Yevgeniya Kumets

January 7, 1948 - June 13, 2021

Yevgeniya Kumets passed away the morning of Sunday, June 13, 2021, at the age of 73. Born in Moldova on January 7, 1948, she immigrated to the United States with her family and settled in New York in 1990. In 2002, she and her husband, Strul Kumets, relocated to Austin, Texas to be closer to her grandchildren.

In her beautiful and well-loved life, Yevgeniya had suffered two strokes, one in October 2007 and the second in December 2007. Yevgeniya resided at Hearthstone Nursing Home for 14 years. All the nurses knew her as a kind soul. After battling her condition, she passed away peacefully, surrounded by loving family.

Yevgeniya was a kind, easygoing, strong woman who loved deeply and lived from her heart. She adored her children and grandchildren and was a master at cooking. Yevgeniya loved watching her grandchildren play and also loved watching basketball, her favorite sport. Although Yevgeniya had many passions, her family was her true love. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin and friend. Yevgeniya had a warm, friendly quality that put people at ease.

She was predeceased by her mother Ida Gringruz and her father, Zus Gringruz.

Yevgeniya is survived by her sister, Dora Buzanover and brother Vladimir Gringruz, children Pavel Kumets and Michael Kumets, and her husband Strul Kumets; her grandchildren Simon, Charles, and Max.

Yevgeniya will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

A private graveside service will be held at Capital Parks Cemetery on Tuesday, June 15, 2021, with a service officiated by Rabbi Steven Folberg.
