Arnold Daks, age 76, passed away on April 16th, 2025 at his home in Round Rock, Texas.

Arnie, as most knew him, was a hardworking, outgoing, talkative, and lovable man. Born and raised in Springfield, Massachusetts and later moved to Boca Raton, Florida with his wife and children. In 1996 he relocated to Round Rock, Texas where he spent the remainder of his life.

He proudly served in the United States Navy and then spent his life working and retiring as an Engineer. He was a brother to the late Brigitta Smith, and the son of the late William and Hanni Daks. He is survived by his four children, Sean (Dianne), Kimberly (Matt), Patricia (Daniel), and Meghan (Josh) and also leaves behind his 12 grandchildren: Jennifer and Ben Daks, Logan, Dillon, and Rhys Antolini, Aaron, Evan, Gavin, Sienna, and Elise Avitia, and Lexi and Jarett Grooms.

In lieu of flowers the family requests donations be made in his honor to the Williamson County Regional Animal Shelter at <https://www.wilcotx.gov/163/Animal-Shelter>.

DEATH

When someone we love leaves this world, it's not death that shatters us.

It's everything that follows.

*The empty chair. The unanswered calls.
The birthdays they'll never celebrate, the dreams they'll never chase.*

It's the memories that sneak up on us, the songs that suddenly feel too heavy to hear.

It's the words we never said, and the moments we thought we had more time for.

It's passing by their favorite places and realizing they're not just gone — they're nowhere.

Their laughter fades, their hopes disappear, and their life — a life still unfinished — becomes a story we can only tell in past tense.

We question everything.

Did we love enough?

Could we have held on a little tighter?

But deep inside, we know: some goodbyes are written long before we're ready.

When someone you love leaves, part of you leaves too.

A part you can never rebuild, a chapter you can never rewrite.

What remains is the hollow space they once filled — a silence that stretches on forever.

And sometimes, it's not the goodbye that hurts the most...

It's the life that should have continued — but didn't.

I worked with Arnie for nearly 10 years at Business Ink. He was a great and knowledgeable guy who always had the best stories from his days early in his career at Sperry or IBM, and even from his days in the Navy. I will miss him. My best to the Daks family. You brought joy and love to his heart and rare was the day when he didn't mention at least one of you. Both he and Steven Berkowitz used to always joke about me being a good Jewish boy going to Temple on Saturdays (my parents live in Temple TX). May Arnie ever know the love of God and May he be at peace.
