

Beatrice Betty Beilin

June 8, 1920 - March 18, 2025

Born June 8, 1920 in Rochester, New York. Preceded in death by her parents - Sam and Ethel Stiles, brothers Harvey and Art Stiles.

Cherished wife of Daniel Ziff (z"l) and Harry Beilin (z"l), beloved mother of Ron (Dale) Beilin, and Patti (Neal) Blauzvern. Honored grandmother of Stacie, Brooke (a"l), Jennifer, Blair, Diana, Hayden, and Sarah. Great grandmother of Corey, Michael, Olivia, Jaxson, and Greyson. Also adored by numerous cousins, nephews, and dear friends.

Beatrice had many jobs when she was younger. As an adult her career was being a professional volunteer. During World War II she was a nurse's aide and worked on the Rationing Board. Always active in PTA and helping at her children's schools. Held many offices at Congregation Agudas Achim in San Antonio and was a past president of Sisterhood, Board Member of National Women's League, President of Golden Manor Auxiliary, lifetime Hadassah Member. For many years volunteered at a hospital gift shop and her favorite was being a mentor and tutor at elementary schools.

She was the kindest most empathetic person in the world. Always thinking of others first. Loved life - enjoyed cooking, dancing when she was younger and was an avid reader. Most important was her family and friends.

Beatrice had a long and beautiful life. She will be greatly missed by all who loved her. She was 104.
