

Berta Sholomon

October 19, 1946 - January 5, 2026

It is with a heavy heart, we announce the passing of our beloved mother, Berta Sholomon. She transitioned peacefully today, concluding a long and valiant fight against dementia with the same grace and courage that defined her entire life. To know Berta was to know a woman of rare, selfless character. She possessed a unique empathy that allowed her to feel the joys and sorrows of others as her own, and a determination that saw her through life's greatest challenges.

Family was Berta's greatest pride and her primary mission. Whether as a daughter, mother, aunt, or grandmother, she was a constant source of unconditional love and protection. Her legacy lives on in the family she nurtured and the countless lives she touched with her gentle spirit. We love you endlessly.

As we say goodbye, we hold close the lessons Berta taught us; to cherish our loved ones, to embrace adventure, to fill our homes with music and laughter, and to welcome others with open arms. Her spirit lives on in every story, every song, and every act of kindness inspired by her example. Though we grieve her passing, we celebrate the profound and beautiful legacy she leaves behind, and we promise to keep her memory alive in our hearts, today and always.
