

Elaine Reva Steiger Orent

February 22, 1936 - December 25, 2024

March 22, 1936 – December 25, 2024

28 Adar 5696 – 24 Kislev 5785

Elaine loved to laugh, dance in the living room, be theatrical, be silly and had the most joyful and beautiful smile one could imagine.

She was born to Mollie (Fenster) and Samuel H. Steiger on March 22, 1936, in Brooklyn, NY. Her parents were already living in Stamford, CT but her mother wanted to give birth in Brooklyn in the hospital where she had delivered Arnold, Elaine's older brother.

Elaine was named after her maternal grandmother, Esther Reva Fenster. She grew up in Stamford, Connecticut, and graduated from Stamford High School in 1954. She attended The University of Michigan and in 1956 transferred to Brooklyn College, CUNY. In 1957 she married Amnon Orent and thus began a life of travel and adventure.

She gave birth to her daughter Aliza in Brooklyn, New York and to Leora in Tucson, Arizona. In Arizona she completed her BA in sociology from The University of Arizona, and during the time she lived in Window Rock, Arizona she worked for The Bureau of Indian Affairs.

In 1963 she and her family moved to Boston, Mass. where she completed an MLS degree in Library Science from Simmons College (1968). Through the years she worked in various libraries in New York; at the University of New Hampshire; and in Connecticut. While living in Israel she worked for Tel Aviv University and some years later in public relations for Beit Frankfurter (a day care center for senior citizens) in Jerusalem. She also helped establish the Jerusalem English Language Library.

In 1965-67 she moved to Ethiopia with Amnon and the girls where she successfully taught Aliza kindergarten and first grade in a monitored distance learning program from The University of Maryland. After making Aliyah in 1971 (moving to Israel) and living in Israel for many years, she and her husband returned to the USA in 2007 to be near their daughters and grandsons in Austin, Texas. One of the highlights of her time in Austin was during the 2019-20 school year, at the Austin Jewish Academy where she read stories to the second graders.

She never quite imagined that her life would take her from being a small town girl to a life filled with adventure and travel to far flung locations.

She was an avid reader and usually had a stack of books next to her bed stand. She passed along her passion for books by teaching both of her daughters the wonders of literature and the beauty of reading.

She was involved with Hadassah in every location she lived in and was a proud member of this important women's group.

She leaves behind her beloved husband Amnon, daughters Aliza (Jennifer), Leora (Art), and grandsons 'Eylam, Eytan, Niv, Matan, and Lucas. Her sisters-in-law Tzippey (Rami), Rhoda, and multiple nieces and nephews.

She will be missed by all that knew and loved her.

Donations in Elaine's name may be made to the Alzheimer's Association or Hadassah Women's Organization.

“ Elaine was my sister-in-law. I met her when I was 14 years old. I used to hang up on girls that called to speak to my brother, but I never hung up on Elaine. She turned out to be more of a sister than a sister-in-law. We shared many things in life and visited one another in Israel and New Jersey and New Hampshire and California and Texas. We met “halfway“ between Israel and California to vacation together in Barcelona. Elaine was sweet and kind and thoughtful. I loved her for many reasons not the least was the way she loved my brother. She gave me two nieces. She and I traveled together and we always enjoyed one another’s company. We talked about family and Travel and Books and all the places my brother took her to live. We stayed in touch by phone and remained very close. I will miss her so much.
