

Ethel Moore

September 29, 1930 - July 4, 2020

Edna (Ethel) Moore, age 89 passed away July 4th 2020 after a full rewarding life. She was born September 29th, 1930 in New York City to Lillian and Louis Mirtenbaum. She married Morris (Moogerman) Moore who preceded her death in 2015.

Moving to Syracuse NY in her youth she went on to attend Syracuse University. She earned a degree in Chemistry, starting a career after graduation with Parke Davis Pharmaceuticals in Detroit Michigan. It was here in Detroit that she met Morris and was married. They started their family in Oak Park Michigan, later moving to West Bloomfield to raise two daughters and a son. She provided them with an awesome home, serving fairly good food and incredible baked goods (best Rugelach ever). Her Dodge Dart matched her consistent energy, which got everyone to where they were supposed to be. She enjoyed mahjong with her friends, crosswords, jigsaw puzzles and gardening. A voracious reader, she loved to travel—taking car trips with the family, never failing to visit the out of the way lighthouse—or with her husband to travel the world, overcoming his impatience to take in every museum she possibly could.

For her daughters she instilled the lasting belief that “gender be damned, women can do everything men can and then some”! To her son she fostered a love of gardening that balanced the impatience he inherited from his old man.

Her grandkids have been heard to say Grandma Edna “is beast”, she’s “the most blunt and badass Bubbie there is”.

She is survived by her sister Grace Newman and brother-in-law Alfred Newman; her three children and their spouses, Lisa and Michael Kurek, Daniel and Natalie Moore, and Renee and Ken Womack; grandchildren, Max Kurek, Isabella Zuccarelli-Moore, Isaac Moore, and Henry Womack.

Those interested in making a contribution to her lasting memory can honor Sophia (Sophie) Kurek, her talented granddaughter whose un-timely death came in 2014. Information can be found at the following link. <http://dragonflykarma.com/sophies-fund/>

“ I will always have great memories of my childhood on Coldspring Lane. Danny (Daniel) and I were close friends growing up and I always felt very comfortable with Mr and Mrs Moore. I can still so vividly see their faces and hear their voices. Only good memories.!

“ I was lucky to live across the street from the Moore's on Cold Spring Lane. I was even luckier when I got invited by Mrs Moore to have dinner at their home. Edna Moore was the best cook ever. Mrs Moore did everything with perfection. She welcomed everyone into her home. As a child growing up across the street, I valued her opinions and knowledge. May her memory be a blessing!

“ I have so many vivid memories of Mrs. Moore from the day the Moores moved onto Cold Spring Lane. The first one is when I knocked on her door and when she answered I said “hi. Do you have any little girls my age to play with?” And she said YES! From that day forward I spent hundreds of days playing there over the years. She was a little strict, practical and serious at times but you could sense just how smart she was. AND she had a candy drawer!! We didn’t have that at our house.

It’s sad to see our parents and their peers pass on no matter how old they are or how good their lives were. It leaves a little emptiness but also puts a smile on our faces when a little story of them pops into our heads. My heart and love goes out to Lisa, Daniel, Renee and all the grandchildren who were lucky enough to call her Bubbe.
