“ There are certain people that you meet, that you know God has a special purpose for them being in your life. Cindy and Greg were two of those people. We met while working together to develop a new start-up concept called HomeTown Buffet. Cindy had a knack for the details when it came to the people side of the business, and she was a natural to help develop our human resources area. Greg was an extremely talented young manager candidate who you couldn't help but love his positive energy, his spirit, and the way he loved his teammates and his guests. You could tell this by the way he talked about them. Always with a gleam in his eye because he was so excited to tell you all about how important they were to him and the business. I loved engaging with Greg. He was open to any task and would do literally anything for his team and the guests who loved going to his restaurant. I was sad when Greg and Cindy moved away from CA to go to Austin TX but at the same time so excited for the great opportunity that lay before them.

It was fun keeping up with them and their business and their wonderful family. While too many years had passed by – last year we had a 30th Anniversary HomeTown Buffet reunion and it brought many of us back together again to reminisce over that wonderful experience and to catch up on each other's lives. The time together was much too short, but it was precious and cherished. I am so incredibly Thankful to have been able to see Greg and Cindy with their former teammates and getting to spend time with them was a true gift from God and I am sure part of His Eternal Plan for all of us. God has a very special place for a wonderful man named Greg Bezella and I am Blessed and Thankful to have been part of his and Cindy's life. May God Bless Greg and welcome him into Heaven and may He comfort Cindy, Rachel, Zach, Travis and family and friends who know and love Greg.

“ Jim and I first met Greg four years ago through his wonderful wife Cindy. We only met Greg a few times, the last only less than 3 months ago when we went out to dinner. His love of food was a defining characteristic, both professionally and personally. Such a caring and kind man who will be missed by those he touched throughout his life. Cindy, Rachel, Zach and Travis - we share your sadness with the all too soon loss of your husband and father.
