

Jackie Joy Piroutek

March 23, 1982 - January 1, 2023

Jackie Joy Piroutek, 40, of Austin, TX, passed away on January 1, 2023. Jackie was born on March 23, 1982 to David and Joanna Piroutek in Rancho Cordova, CA. As a child, Jackie traveled extensively with her family during her father's military service. Jackie loved getting to know people everywhere she went, and always had a compassionate heart. As an adult, she had the same spirit of adventure of her childhood, living in Arkansas, Maryland, and California before settling in Texas with her daughter, Leila.

Jackie is survived by her parents, her brother Joseph, her daughter, and her many friends. Jackie's family hopes that all who knew her will share her spirit of kindness, curiosity, and humor to celebrate her life forever more.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made to Girls Write Now at <https://girlswritenow.org/give/>

“ I'm very saddened to learn of Jackie's passing. I was friends with her on an online chat platform from the late 90's through too the middle 2000's. She helped me through a tough time in my life because of her I'm still here. May she rest in peace. ”

“ I worked with Jackie at Chico’s.

From the first day that I met Jackie, I was drawn to her kindness and compassion. She had a sweetness about her and she always had a smile on her face.

I adored Jackie. Everything about her! From her pleasing voice saying good morning as she flew by you with her Starbucks in hand or her hair-do of the day. Who can forget those two little pig-tail buns?

She was my go-to gal at work. She knew her product and exactly where it was...unless the stylist had been there earlier!

I loved closing at night with her. When it was my turn to count the money, she would get to laughing so because I would put the dollar bills all facing the same way.

They say opposites attract, well, there was no one more opposite than Jackie and myself. She was a millennial and I was of the baby boomers. Jackie was very much a liberal and I, a republican. We agreed to disagree on politics, but we were able to listen to each other’s side.

Some people come into your life for a reason, a season or a lifetime. Jackie, I just thought we had more time. You taught me so many things, but you didn’t teach me to live without you in my life.

You are perfectly perfect in heaven now.

Till we meet again, my friend.

“ I am so sorry to everyone who loved you and will miss you and were touched by the spark of beauty and empathy and realism and love. She made me think critically about things I hadn't before. She was among the first people besides my spouse and OB that I told that I was going to have my baby - before I even told her godparents. We fell off the past few years, but I hadn't forgotten you and never will. I hope wherever we go next, it is peaceful and joyful so that you can feel those things, too.

Leila, I am so very, very sorry. I also lost my father when I was young, a little older than you. You can PM me any time. I hope you are taken care of out there. If you need anything I can give, name it and consider it done. Your mom was so, SO proud of you and the adult you have become.

Sunshine was my nickname for Jackie because that's what she was, a ray of beautiful light. I thought about her all day yesterday as it would have been her 41st birthday, however, it wasn't until today that I received word of her passing. As my eyes fill with tears while writing this, I am thankful for the time we had together and how close we were while she lived in California. I met Jackie when we worked together at Old Navy and she was like a sister to me. She always wanted the best for me and challenged me in the most thoughtful ways. She wanted me to set my standards high and encouraged me to be me. Jackie had the amazing ability to be honest yet sensitive and her heart was bigger than you could imagine. I will miss her dearly and pray for her family and especially beautiful Leila to find peace during this time. Leila, please know that I am here if you need anything at all, sweet girl. Love you.
