

Jason Leonard Wolfson

September 6, 1917 - May 14, 2010

Jason Leonard Wolfson passed away peacefully on May 14, 2010. He was surrounded by his children, Valrie Mintzer, Steven Wolfson and Lisa Kabus. He left his oldest daughter, Val and her husband Jerry and son Zach, his son Steven and his wife Vivian and two daughters, Lauren and Angela, and his youngest Lisa and her husband Al and children Lindsey and Matt. Len was born to Julius and Elizabeth Wolfson and was raised in and around Boston, Massachusetts. He was a WW2 veteran who fought bravely as a fighter pilot with the 86th airborne based out of Italy. He was discharged honorably, and entered the field of merchandising. He married his wife Vera, and raised 3 children. He loved fishing, golf and gardening as well as going to his beloved Rockport, Mass every summer with his family. He was a kind, caring father who will be greatly missed. We love you dad. Services were held in a private setting with his immediate family. Donations can be made to the Alzheimer's Association.

Tribute Wall

SW

“ Lt Jason Wolfson was also the recipient of the Distinguished Flying Cross for helping to save the life of his shot down squadron leader during the war

---

swmedia - November 09, 2024 at 04:11 PM

VM

What an amazing life he lead. A guy that loved his family.

---

Valrie Mintzer - November 09, 2024 at 06:37 PM