

Kevin Michael McFarland

September 11, 1993 - November 24, 2024

Kevin Michael McFarland was born on 9/11/1993 in Austin, Texas to Mark McFarland and Kerry McFarland, later joined by his younger sister, Jessica McFarland. As an 8th generation Texan and a true Austinite, his life was full of family, friends and fun. He liked to say that he was born and raised in the shadows of the UT tower, which resulted in his lifelong dedication to the Texas Longhorn football team. He was highly energetic and highly intelligent with an incredible sense of humor. He was an avid reader with a wide range of interests, especially history. He had a true gift of storytelling and always enjoyed an audience with whom he could share his infinite knowledge.

His friend Cyril wrote of him "He was strongly principled, a bibliophile, and a lover of nature and adventure". He was also fiercely loyal to those he loved.

Our beloved Kevin passed away on Saturday 11/23/2024. He is survived by his Dad and Stepmom: Mark McFarland and Terri Bohuslav; Mother, Kerry McFarland; Sister, Jessica McFarland; as well as grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins and members of his large extended families that loved him. He is also survived by a vast network of friends and "chosen family members" that enriched his life. Too many to mention but his lifelong friend Jackson, Thomas, Cyril, Chelsea and so many many others. Special gratitude for Razzy and Stephanie for their unwavering devotion but especially to Zoe D.

Our hearts are broken as we process the shock of losing our Kevin and we are thankful for all of the prayers, comforting support and love that has been extended by so many during our time of bereavement.

Kevin was laid to rest with a private family service in Austin Memorial Park, a beautiful cemetery that is the forever home for many of his extended family and friends as well as many famous Austinites. He will be truly missed by all.

“ I know that I am late with this, and I sincerely apologize. My deepest condolences for the loss of Kevin. He was a bright spot when he was in our scout den and then in the troop. Kevin's humor was terrific, and he loved treating us all to it. I still think of Kevin whenever I hear "NASA" or "Kennedy Space Center." We were on a scout trip there and spent the night on the floors of the Space Museum. Then, we got to tour the space center. When we were on the tour of the control room, and our guide asked for questions, Kevin's hand SHOT up. The guide called on him and he said "Has any famous ever been in this room?" The guide said, "Well, every President since President Johnson, the Queen of England, and the list goes on." Kevin said, "No, I mean, like Chris Farley, has Chris Farley ever been here." He knew what was important even when he was in the 5th grade. When we moved from Austin we lost touch and never before have I regretted that more, because these young men in our Webelos Den were a joy, and Kevin was one of the most joyful.

“ I’m shocked and saddened by this news. I started my relationship with him as an English student at mccallum high school, but in the intervening years we became friends at our local watering hole. He was a kind and compassionate person and an authentic and genuine human being with a lot to offer us all, and the world is a darker place in his absence.

We will never get over losing our precious Kevin. He was one of the most interesting and intelligent people I've ever known. There will always be a special place in my heart for him.
