

Luke Jerry Anselmo

January 7, 2020 - April 19, 2021

In his 15 months on this earth, Luke managed to both soak in the world and shine back on it with his light. He was a lover of music and dance, of close cuddles and baths. He knew that putting shoes on was the first step to walks, and that walks were what got him out there in the world where so much was new and to be discovered. Buoyed up by the boisterous love of his brothers, and blanketed in the attentions of his parents and grandparents, Luke faced days in and out of the hospital with the same wide, open smile. And when those big blue eyes turned to you, the world became kinder and everything possible. He fought hard, and for as long as he could. Though we have lost him, sweet memories will remain of this boy with a lion heart. Donations for heart research in Luke's memory are being raised at <https://gofund.me/6f93017f>.

“ Luke was such a sweet boy. He warmed my heart every time he came to cardiology clinic with his big beautiful eyes and warm smile. I very much have enjoyed watching him grow. I was able to watch his lovely service on livestream. I was touched by the love that surrounded him. I am just heartbroken for your loss.

Luke has such a special family and such loving parents. I am privileged to have taken care of him and witness your dedication and love to your boys. Your family is in my prayers and will always be in my thoughts.

“ Lukey was nothing short of an angel on this Earth. At times maybe a bit of a spitfire of an angel, depending on what toy/blanket/snack you were offering him (he had VERY strong opinions and wasn't afraid to share them), but an angel through and through.

I will never forget the times I shared with him, from practicing the "Itsy Bitsy Spider" to snuggling during nap time at grandma's house. I will always remember your toothy grin and the way you would throw your head back when you laughed. I am so blessed to be an aunt to such an amazing boy. I strive to have the kind of joy, positivity, and fighting spirit that you emanated every day in your short life. Luke was truly a gift to our family and I will never forget him. Aunt Mary loves you so much Lukey <3

“ I knew Luke only through the description of his Grandpa Steve who called him fierce Luke.
I know your family will be the strength you need to see you through this difficult time. He will always be with you in your memories. Hold tight to each other. Luke is with you all.
