

Lynette Ann LaMonica

September 23, 1970 - June 27, 2018

Lynette Ann LaMonica died unexpectedly on June 27, 2018. Lynette was born on September 23, 1970, in Syosset, NY. She moved to Texas when she was young, and later attended the University of Texas, graduating with a degree in music. She was a talented singer, performing with the Conspirare Choir, and flautist, sharing her passion for music with others as a flute teacher. Lynette was a self-proclaimed cat lady, a devoted liberal activist, and an avid reader of mystery novels. She loved sitting down to a breakfast of strong coffee and migas. Despite her introverted nature and her lifelong struggle with depression, she surprised all of us by making a name for herself in the Austin stand-up comedy scene. She cared deeply for others and always knew how to make people laugh.

Lynette was preceded in death by her father, Frank, and is survived by many loved ones including mother, Carol; siblings, Mike, Lauren, Bridget, and Megan; niece, Frances; nephew, Flynn; step-mothers, Maggie, Ruth, and Arleen; and her beloved cats Franklin and Thomas. Visitation for friends and family will be held on July 3 from 5-7pm in the home of sister Lauren and brother-in-law Jason, at 8006 Parkdale Drive, 78757. Her ashes will be spread at the beach, a place where she always found peace. Family is planning a memorial gathering to take place in the fall. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Austin Pets Alive.

A Memorial Picnic is planned for Saturday, November 10th, 2018 from 11:00 AM to 3:00 PM at Pease Park located at 1100 Kingsbury in Austin, TX

Tribute Wall

“ Lynette Ann LaMonica

October 14, 2022 at 12:02 PM

“ 2 files added to the album New Album Name

Bridget LaMonica Ostrem - July 02, 2018 at 09:50 PM