

Lynn M. Shapiro

February 4, 1947 - January 25, 2026

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Lynn Shapiro, beloved wife, mother, sister and friend. Lynn was born in Cleveland, Ohio to Paul and Lois Marcus, grew up in Shaker Heights and made a full life for herself in Texas. Lynn was a very loyal friend to many, passionate about her family and her dogs, loved tennis, shopping, and her career in fashion sales. She is survived by her beloved husband Bob, daughter Pamela and brother Neil. She fought very hard to stay with us as long as she could, but eventually succumbed to a rare respiratory ailment of which there is no cure. For that reason, we hope that if you would like to make a donation in her name, please send it to Jewish National Hospital in Denver, one of the world's finest hospitals for her condition.

Graveside services will be held on Thursday, January 29, 2026 at 3 PM. at Capital Parks Cemetery in the Congregation Beth Israel section. For directions to the Congregation Beth Israel section of this cemetery, please paste the following coordinates into your GPS: 30.435818,-97.664974

“ We grew up next door to each other and shared our wonderful neighbors and neighborhood. My prayer, dear Lynn, is that you are no longer suffering. You had a rough go and you soared. You were so proud of Pam and I loved the visits we managed when I lived in Santa Fe. Rest, dear Lynn. You've earned it.

Dear Lynn. I treated your mom in the therapeutic pool. She was so proud of you and your great endeavors. She loved the pool as she was free from pain. She is free now, too! Sending love and blessings to you and Bob.

“ I have gotten to know and love Lynn through our little Cotons. Cody and Cassidy have been a tru joy for her, having only Cassidy the past several years to snuggle on the bed brought great joy and comfort. Lynn’s greatest loves are her beloved Bob and Pamela, whom we talked about most. Their steadfast love and devotion carried her through difficult times. May her love carry you both in the days ahead. I shall truly miss her infectious laughter and her always saying I love you as we ended our many phone conversations. Rest in Peace dear Lynn.

“ I was a friend of Lynn’s throughout high school years. Lynn and i used to get into trouble often for talking in class. We both had a crazy sense of humor. I will remember her fondly and may her memories be a blessing to you . I am so very sorry for your loss.

“ So sorry for your loss. Lynn and I went to different schools but I would see her at Beechmont CC most weekends. Her parents and mine were good friends.

“ So very sorry for your loss! We went all through school together and Lynn was always so friendly and kind in those days. We also were in shared carpools to Sunday school and Florence Shapiro's.

I'm so sorry to hear this. Lynn and I were friends in high school. She was such a nice person. We also kept in touch on Facebook over the years. May her memory be a blessing for all who knew and loved her.

Lynn is the mother of one of my dearest and oldest friends, Pamela. She raised an amazing daughter. Lynn was always so kind to me and supportive of my music. She will be missed. May she fly free beyond pain and worries. Sending love to all of Lynn's extended community.
