

Lupe Mandujano Garcia

July 20, 1946 - December 15, 2020

Lupe Mandujano Garcia died on Tuesday, December 15, 2020. Born in Tacambaro, Michoacán Mexico, Lupe grew up in Amarillo, TX with her sister, Coco, and parents Irene Rauda and Encarnacion Mandujano (or as everyone called him– “Don Chon”).

Lupe earned a bachelor’s and master’s degree in Romance Languages from Texas Tech University in Lubbock, TX. While living in Lubbock, she was introduced to Frank Garcia by a mutual friend. They were married in San Antonio, TX on September 20, 1975. After being stationed at Logan AFB in Ogden, UT, Frank was later sent to Bergstrom air force base in Austin, TX in the summer of 1977. They made Austin their home and had two daughters, Gloria and Mim.

Lupe was generous with her heart, time, and talents. There was always room for another chair at the table for dinner, and if there was a need in her community, she was there to fill it.

She was a devoted mother. When her six-year-old daughter demanded she be her Girl Scout Troop leader, Lupe negotiated a three-quarter time work schedule to allow her to lead Girl Scout Troop 636. Lupe and Frank together were presidents of the Austin High Orchestra Parents Association and supported their daughters as boosters, fundraisers, and chaperones on orchestra trips.

Lupe made her career in social services and public health. From working in San Antonio with the local health department, to helping low-income new mothers obtain services and resources they needed, to her work with the Texas state health department in vaccine advocacy, Lupe was committed to improving the health and wellbeing of her community.

Following her retirement from the Texas Department of State Health Services, Lupe and Frank fulfilled their dream of traveling the world together. Lupe is preceded in death by her husband Frank, her mother and father. She is survived by her sister, Secorro “Coco” Medina, her daughters Gloria Litt and Mimi Garcia, sons-in-law Andrew Litt and Ken Cameron, and her grandchildren Ben, Molly, Kathryn, and Jonathan.

A memorial service will be live-streamed via Congregation Beth Israel’s YouTube channel on Wednesday, December 23 at 10 a.m. <https://www.youtube.com/user/CBIATX>

Lupe will be buried with her husband Frank at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery in a private ceremony on Thursday, December 31

In lieu of flowers, a donation may be made to Any Baby Can (<https://anybabycan.org/donate/>), or Congregation Beth Israel (<https://www.bethisrael.org/payment.php>) in Lupe’s honor or the charity of your choice.

Cemetery Details

Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery

1520 Harry Wurzbach Road
San Antonio, TX 78209

Previous Events

Memorial Service

DEC 23. 10:00 AM.

Congregation Beth Israel YouTube Channel
<https://www.youtube.com/user/CBIATX>

Tribute Wall

“ Austin Natural Funerals created a Lupe Mandujano Garcia Memorial Service in memory of Lupe Mandujano Garcia

Austin Natural Funerals - December 23, 2020 at 01:53 PM

SI

I am so sorry to hear that Lupe passed away. I am a neighbor of Lupes. She and Frank were both such kind and generous people. I am so sorry for your loss.

Sue Irish - March 03, 2021 at 03:05 PM

RW

“ Oh, no! I just found out that Lupe is gone! We had lost track of each other during the last 40 years, but I had hoped to reconnect with her now that I am living in Austin. Lupe helped me look for a place to live when I moved to San Antonio after law school in 1974, and I took the pictures at the catholic church off Broadway when she and Frank were married, circa 1975. Lupe taught me how to make green chili chicken enchiladas. She was an amazing soul, and since we both believe we come back, I'm sure I will connect with her again. Much love to Hugo and Coco and her daughters.

Roger Wilson - December 13, 2024 at 05:12 PM

“ Lupe Mandujano Garcia

October 14, 2022 at 12:02 PM