

Mary Beth Osborn

December 26, 1959 - August 7, 2022

Mary Beth Osborn passed away in Austin, Texas on August 7, 2022.

She was born in Little Rock, Arkansas on December 26, 1959 to Edward Cox and Nanalee Toler. She is survived by her husband Scott Osborn, her son David Osborn, her sister Stephany Renfro, and her brothers Mike Cox and Tom Cox.

Mary Beth grew up in Little Rock, Arkansas and went to college at Ouachita Baptist University in Arkadelphia, Arkansas, where she earned a degree in Psychology. After graduating, she worked in the financial industry. She married Scott Osborn of Jonesboro, Arkansas in July of 1986, and later moved to Austin in 1996.

Mary Beth's faith was unshakeable, and she spent a lot of hours reading and memorizing scripture, as well as studying theology and Christian apologetics. She served in many capacities in all the churches she attended, and had a special passion for prayer and evangelism.

Mary Beth had a gift for creativity and explored many different artistic mediums - painting, sculpture, drawing, interior design, etc. She was happiest when caring for her animals and plants, or hiking trails in Colorado.

Services for Mrs. Mary Beth Osborn will be held on Saturday, August 13, 2022, at 10:00 AM at Grace Covenant Church in Austin, Texas, with Ray Anderson officiating.

Mary Beth's favorite charity was Samaritan's Purse.

“ Mary Beth was a servant and loved to bless people. She was always willing to go out of her way to help those in need. She will be greatly missed, I am honored that our paths crossed and remember her fondly. Praying for Scott and David as they continue this journey without her.

“ We want to offer our deepest condolences to the Mary Beth Osborn family. We met Mary Beth while doing yard work at Rachel's house. She would always offer us cold water and fruit on hot days always with a smile. She was so friendly and kind. We will always remember her.

“ Marybeth was one of the kindest people I have ever met. She was my neighbor for years and would always stop by to see how me and my family were doing. She would often bring pastries and give really good hugs. Her smile and kindness is infectious and makes me happy each time I see her smile. You will be missed by many. Thank you for being a huge impact on my life.

“ Marybeth was an extraordinary example of humanity. She was my neighbor and dear friend who I was blessed to have in my life for many years. I will always remember her tireless efforts to help our community. She was an avid gardener, thrifter, artist, and follower of Jesus Christ. She is greatly missed.

Mary Beth and I were friends in high school and I remember her as a beautiful soul with gorgeous eyes. We reconnected briefly several years ago when she was in Little Rock. It was if no time had passed; we picked up our friendship from years ago. Unfortunately, she didn't seem to be on Facebook too much and we lost contact again. I and her friends from that era loved her so. Another high school friend of ours, Becky (Edmonds) Ponce, just passed 9/17 from cancer, too. Maybe she and Mary Beth are catching up and sharing some laughs right now.
