

Matthew Evan Crohn

April 25, 1985 - September 8, 2021

It is with overwhelming sadness that we announce the passing of Matthew Evan Crohn, who died on September 8 at the achingly young age of 36. Matthew was born in Austin, Texas in April 1985 to Jody Cohen and Howard Crohn. He is survived by both parents and his sister Kendall Crohn, as well as by his loving grandmother, aunts and uncles, and cousins.

Matthew struggled with many obstacles and challenges through his life, but was always kind and caring, loved his family, and was a good friend. He was patient and a natural with children, who gravitated to him and adored him.

Matt was musically talented and had a great singing voice, and was an especially creative and adept rapper. He was a talented artist who rendered lifelike pencil drawings of family. He was skilled with his hands and so bright he could quickly learn any construction or car repair skills and then get the job done.

Matt's spirit, energy and loving nature is a devastating loss and he will be missed by those who loved him, his potential unfulfilled. Our prayer is that he rest in the peace he never truly found in life.

“ I met Matthew in the eighth grade — I was a mid-semester transfer student having a rough go at being the new kid. I recall we butted heads in show-choir to start, but were fast to become close friends. That's just the kind of guy he was.

I'm grateful for his friendship and generosity of spirit, and so too her mother's gracious tolerance of all our ruckus in the house.

In the shuffle of his leave freshman year, we lost contact. I'd check up on how my buddy Matthew was doing over the years and I'm deeply saddened and confounded to hear of his passing.

In sharing my stories of Matthew, it's easy to see that Matthew was a gentle soul whose effect is uniquely indelible.

I offer my deepest condolences to his family. Goodbye Matthew. I love you buddy.

I am truly sorry for everything. I had a daughter with Matt when I was about 20 when Matt was in prison. The court ordered that I didn't have any contact with him. I wasn't in the best circumstances to be her mom, so I let a great family adopt her and she's had a beautiful life. I never got to tell him that, and always ignored his messages. I feel horrible that I never told him that. My condolences go out to all of his family and friends. I just found out last night.
