“ I worked as a delivery driver at Reuben's Bottle Shop back in the mid-seventies. I remember Reuben, as well as the whole family, being so nice and truly wonderful people to work for. It's so funny, but I also remember being told to not eat "Mexican" on Friday, one of the busy days, so that we employees would not upset the customers with any offensive breath. Such attention to his customers was something for which Reuben will be forever loved and missed.

“ Reuben, Etsy and the Kogut family were so gracious to me when I was in school. I worked at Reuben's, and was always invited to their home during holidays. Having Steve as a good friend, and being in AEPii was good enough for Reuben to welcome me and extend a hearty welcome into their home. I have nothing but great memories of Reuben, and will always be grateful for knowing the Kogut's for who they are, a loving, caring family.
