

Steven Jacob Cyzner

October 16, 1951 - February 11, 2023

Steven Jacob Cyzner was born in Brooklyn, New York to survivors of the Shoah from Poland and Germany. His mother Rachel adored him and he reminded her of her beloved father. Steven had one younger sister, Brenda and a younger half-brother, Alan. Steven is predeceased by his mother and survived by his father, Abraham and stepmom Bette, daughter Heather (Van) and grandson Alexander, sister Brenda Weitzberg (Moshe) and half-brother Alan Rothman, nephew Oran, niece Keren (Eran) and great nephew Asher.

Steven loved animals, nature, avant-garde films, gardening, books, writing and football. He was beautiful, brilliant, well-read and witty. Steven loved life and was funny and charming. He was generous, kind and truly cared about others as evidenced by the dozens of charities he supported. Steven was very loved and will be missed.

In Steven's memory the family invites donations to charities supporting animal welfare, the environment and human rights.

Cemetery Details

Eloise Woods Natural Burial Park

115 Northside Lane
Cedar Creek, TX 78612
(512) 796-5240
<http://eloisewoods.com>

Previous Events

Funeral

FEB 13. 1:00 PM (CT)

Eloise Woods Natural Burial Park
115 Northside Lane
Cedar Creek, TX 78612

Tribute Wall

CT

“ *Just found out Steven died...I loved Him We just couldn't get along.
So sorry to hear it. Connie Taylor Middlesex, North Carolina*

Connie Taylor - April 03, 2023 at 05:13 PM

CT

The cats name was Shivvy...What was the name of the cat I found on the bridge....I don't remember....

Connie Taylor - April 03, 2023 at 05:25 PM